

HUNGARIAN - AMERICAN TECHNOLOGY AND INNOVATION SOCIETY IN SILICON VALLEY

OUR VALUES are embedded in the mission of the Society. The core of our values is threefold: The Society is built on openness, professionalism, and depoliticization. Accordingly, the Society pursues its mission in conformity with the following commitments and guiding principles:

- The Society is an open and inclusive intellectual community.
- We believe that openness stimulates the free exchange of ideas and is, therefore, a core value of the Society.
- We acknowledge that diversity enriches our community and promotes the realization of our goals.
- In its operation, the Society is committed to transparency.
- The Society is a professional organization that abides to the highest standards of practice.
- We expect professionalism from all members of our community.
- The Society, both internally and externally, works in a collaborative fashion based on mutual respect.
- We are committed to acting honestly and with integrity, and in compliance with the law.
- The Society is a non-political, non-partisan community.
- In our operation, we are committed to pragmatism and objectivity that we believe are essential in pursuing our mission.
- Our political and financial independence is a prerequisite for openness and professionalism, guaranteeing the prevalence of these core values.
